mistakes, gigantic or infinitesimal, there is no demand or cause for invoking the recall. There are people in the various sections of the county who will ridicule the list of mistakes we have enumerated and say that most of them were absolutely right and that the only mistake made by the Court was because they did not put, in addition to the $260,000 bond money, all the tax money on the road from Tide Creek to Clatsop County and let all the other roads in the county go without any money or work. There are perhaps others who will say that the money to be used on the Pittsburg road is a waste and that the road is unnecessary, while others will say the same thing about the Clatskanie-Mist road. Everybody will have his own ideas about the mistakes the Court has made and is making but through it all there is evidence on every hand that the three men composing the County Court have acted as their best judgment dictated and, to their mind, according to the directions of the people and for the best interests of the county as a whole.

There is no just cause for such an uprising and sectional feeling as is now manifest in the county, and it is to be hoped that the level headed, interested tax paying citizens will not lend encouragement to such an unwarranted and unjust affair.
